■ THIS WEEK'S QUOTE

"You did not just learn about technology this week. You used it, questioned it, and imagined how it could serve your community better. That is leadership."

This is it. Week 5. You have built your identity, researched your culture, told your community's story, taught your peers, and designed a business. Today you bring it all together — and present it to the world. This is YOUR showcase. YOUR voice. YOUR vision.

WHAT I WILL LEARN THIS WEEK

- I can present a culturally relevant final project to a live audience.
- I can explain how my project connects to my community's real needs.
- I can participate in DAO governance for live showcase votes.
- I can name and celebrate the growth I experienced across 5 weeks of Tech Week.
